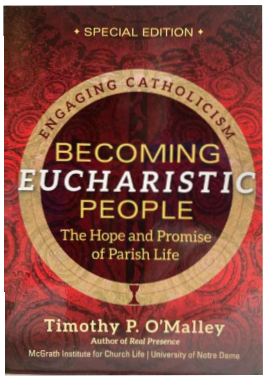
Joys & Drinks

We are indeed going to offer a five-week formation on the Eucharist this summer. We would utilize Tim O'Malley's book Becoming Eucharistic People. We will hold the gatherings on MONDAYS starting Monday, June 19. We will begin at 6:30 pm and finish a bit before 8 pm. Interested? Please drop Roy a note via email or text (217-512-0949) or sign up on the sheet in the gathering space. It is free and open to all. Free child care will be provided so parents with kiddos can attend.



Please note: there is some "homework" to do before the first meeting. We will ask everyone attending to have read the first chapter of the book. Pick up your book after you sign up or stop by the Newman office.

A View from My Window

I do not often speak of the penance I receive from the priest as part of going to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, but I am super excited to share one I received four months ago. Not because I think you all should embrace it as well, even though that would be cool, but because today is the Feast of Pentecost, and my penance: to pray the Pentecost Sequence. It is what we prayed today after the second reading.

You might be thinking, "Wow, Roy that was some sin if you are still doing penance from four months ago." All I know is the priest said, "For your penance pray and meditate upon the Pentecost Sequence." He really didn't say for how long or how many times. So maybe it was a stubborn sin. The point is I was so moved by the words of the sequence that it is now part of my prayer regimen. Talk about God's grace from the sacrament!

As you know from praying it today at Mass, it begins with Come Holy Spirit Come and from your celestial home shed a ray of light divine. Such beautiful words inviting the Holy Spirit to shed a little light! I realize over these past four months my heart has slowly been opening up to the promptings of the Spirit. My favorite line is O most blessed Light divine, May that light within us shine and our inmost being fill! What?!

Imagine, just imagine if you and I allowed these words to fill us up. It would be the upper room all over again. Fr. Braden would be wondering how many more Sunday Masses he could offer because of all the folks coming to experience what they are witnessing in us. Crazy idea, and yet we know what happened when the apostles went out on this day all those centuries ago. Come Holy Spirit Come!

Peace, Roy
