

Pre-Cana 2016

Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.
Be of one mind towards one another

Pre-Cana is a marriage preparation workshop for couples contemplating marriage. The Catholic Church sponsors these workshops to give couples the space to explore and reflect on relationships and married life.

Topics Discussed:

Communications: How to avoid breakdowns in communications (learning to say what we mean). How to better express one's feelings to one's future spouse. How to create a space to share joys and sorrows.

Finances: A look at everything from budgeting to purchasing a home.

Values of Christian Marriage:

Exploration of marital goals and priorities; Marriage as a Christian Vocation and Sacrament; Exploration of intimacy and sexuality and the Church's Theology of Sexuality.

Interfaith and Interchurch

Marriage: What does it mean to share faith with your future spouse? How do you begin to live out and deal with some of the issues of interfaith/interchurch/Catholic marriage? What does it mean to live a Christian marriage?

Marriage Preparation vs. Wedding

Preparation: Planning beyond the wedding day for a lifetime of marriage; Discussion of rite and ceremony. This will also include what is allowed or not allowed at a wedding.
