Open Wide Our Hearts

Our nation is more divided along racial lines than ever. How can we begin to heal our community and our own hearts?

Starting this week, join any of the Small Groups led by EIU faculty and Newman staff to reflect on the 2018 letter that the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops on racial injustice: Open Wide Our Hearts.

Give Us this Day

We are taking orders for the Give Us this Day daily prayer book. It provides you with the daily and Sunday readings, along with morning prayer, evening prayer, and a saint of the day. It will give you support and guidance for moments of prayer and reflection throughout your day. The annual subscription is $36. We are able to get this rate if we have six people. The order comes to Newman and we set it out for you. Let Lindsay know by September 18.

BIG QUESTIONS

Starting later this month we will be offering a series entitled: Big Questions. This will provide anyone with, let's say, a big question, to come and enter into a discussion through the lens of faith. This is a wonderful opportunity for those thinking about joining the Catholic Church, or are curious about faith, or just have questions they would like answered.

Religious Education Program

This is a year of incredible challenges. We here at the parish of St. Charles Borromeo understand the difficulties each of you must be facing during the current crisis.

Despite all the new obstacles each family is facing, we hope that every family wants to ensure their children keep in touch with the Church and the Church's teachings. We are trying to provide as much assistance as we can. As such, we will offer both in-person and at-home instruction. We are asking that each family register their child, and let us know what format that wish to follow.

Contact Deacon Jeff at 217-345-3332 for more info.

A View from My Window

Most of us are open to finding a quote from someone famous, or not so famous as the case may be, that gives us reason to pause, or to laugh, or to change our lives. I found one that indeed gives us reason to pause, and hopefully to pray on over this next week.

Accept surprises that upset your plans, shatter your dreams, give a completely different turn to your day and --who knows?--to your life. It is not a chance. Leave the Father free to weave the pattern of your days.

--Dom Helder Camara, 1909-99

A word: I know you might be thinking: NO MORE SURPRISES! However, if we accept the premise that our lives should imitate Christ's, then surrender should be part of our lives or at least part of our vocabulary. So I encourage you to think about what surrendering your will over to the will of God looks like. Can we embrace the archbishop's words and allow the Father free to weave the pattern of your days?
